

Colonel William R. Seck, Superintendent, Kansas Highway Patrol

William R. Seck grew up in Independence, Missouri and graduated from the University of Missouri at Kansas City in 1975 with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

He began his career with the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) in 1972 as a support employee in the Kansas City office. He was accepted into FBI New Agents Class at Quantico, Virginia in August 1976 and completed training in December 1976. His initial transfer took him to Las Vegas, Nevada where he worked general criminal matters. In 1979, he was transferred to the New York City Division and for eight years focused on Foreign Counterintelligence Investigations. In 1986, he was sent to the Garden City, Kansas Resident Agency where he began to form close working relationships with other local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies throughout Kansas. He was reassigned to the Wichita Resident Agency in 1991.

From May 1996 until his retirement in June 2003, Colonel Seck was the Supervisory Senior Resident Agent (SSRA) for the State of Kansas. As SSRA, he was responsible for FBI operations throughout the state and supervised resident agencies located in Garden City, Salina, Topeka and Wichita. He also supervised three Joint Terrorism Task Force Operations initiated in the aftermath of 9/11. From May 1996 through September 2001, he supervised two Violent Crime Task Forces located in Wichita and Topeka.

Colonel Seck became the Superintendent of the Kansas Highway Patrol on July 8, 2003.

Colonel Seck is a member of the Kansas Peace Officers Association and the Kansas Sheriff's Association. He has been active in the FBI National Academy throughout his 17 years in the State.

Colonel Seck and his wife Kathleen, have three grown children.
